In the past the Central Intelligence Agency has provided excellent lecturers to supplement our course of instruction in counterintelligence. A refresher course is being conducted this summer for approximately 50 Naval Reserve Officers, all of whom are cleared for access to information of a Secret classification.

[redacted] of your staff has skillfully addressed classes at the Naval Intelligence School on numerous occasions.
It would be greatly appreciated if [redacted] or another lecturer could be made available to address this group on 24 June 1960. A suggested subject is "The Soviet Intelligence System."
